

An Experienced Project Manager with high ambitions

We are looking for a Project Manager who will be responsible for the day to day contact with some of our biggest clients. You will be based at our office in Oslo, Norway.

We need a Project Manager with an entrepreneurial mindset

As our new Project Manager you will take part in various national and international client projects. You will handle requests and offers towards both current and potential clients as well as setting up new client accounts and coordinating client deliveries. Presenting results for clients and handling the discussions and follow ups, often supported by a dedicated analyst, will also be important parts of your work. Your main focus will be to make sure that our offer and final delivery is aligned with our clients' stated business challenges. You will collaborate on a daily basis with Nordic and international colleagues from all of Nepa's areas of expertise; IT, Consulting and Research.

Your anatomy as an experienced Project Manager

We are looking for someone who is solution oriented, positive and driven. At the same time - you are structured, meticulous and quality conscious with great project management skills. You enjoy working with the operative details, but also have the ability to connect the dots and see the big picture. The ideal candidate has 3+ years of experience with handling insight and research deliveries, or other client specific projects that have required an analytical mindset. You will be expected to define and solve problems that you haven't encountered before and implement solutions in a client context on a daily basis. Advanced knowledge of MS Office tools, especially Excel, and knowledge of SPSS is an advantage.

A few more things

- You have a degree within business and/or economics.
- You are fluent in Norwegian and English, both in writing and speech.
- You share our core values (Passion, Innovation and Collaboration).
- You take pride in delivering high level of services. We are known for that.

Nepa help companies to accelerate their business performance by becoming customer centric at their fingertips.
